

Feathers, Fur and Scales Information Sheet

Types of Vertebrate Animals (animals with backbones)

What do they eat?

Carnivores

They eat meat, for example snakes, crocodiles and Tasmanian devils.

Herbivores

They eat plants, for example koalas, kangaroos and parrots.

Omnivores

They eat everything, for example emus, crabs and bats.

Where do they live?

Deserts

Deserts are the driest places on Earth. They get very little rainfall and have lots of sand.

Who lives there? Thorny Devil, Bilby, Bearded Dragon, Red Kangaroo

Bushland and Temperate Forests

These habitats have lots of trees but can be dry.

Who lives there? e.g. Goanna, Dingo, Koala, Wombat, Echidna

Rainforests

Rainforests have lots of trees and lots of rain.

Who lives there? e.g. Quoll, Green Tree Frog, Flying Fox, Boyds Forest Dragon

Wetlands and Waterways

These habitats include lakes, rivers & billabongs.

Who lives there? e.g. Saltwater Crocodile, Platypus, Water Skink, Turtle